32 CFR Ch. I (7–1–00 Edition)

category of information contained in the system;

(iii) The possibility of meeting the information requirements through use of information not individually identifiable or through other techniques, such as sampling;

(iv) The length of time each item of personal information must be retained;

(v) The cost of maintaining the information; and

(vi) The necessity and relevancy of the information to the purpose for which it was collected.

(g) Discontinued information requirements. (1) Stop collecting immediately any category or item of personal information from which retention is no longer justified. Also excise this information from existing records, when feasible.

(2) Do not destroy any records that must be retained in accordance with disposal authorizations established under 44 U.S.C. 303a, “Examination by the Administrator of General Services of Lists and Schedules of Records Lacking Preservation Value, Disposal of Records.”

§ 310.11 Standards of accuracy.

(a) Accuracy of information maintained. Maintain all personal information that is used or may be used to make any determination about an individual with such accuracy, relevance, timeliness, and completeness as is reasonably necessary to ensure fairness to the individual in making any such determination.

(b) Accuracy determination before dissemination. Before disseminating any personal information from a system of records to any person outside the Department of Defense, other than a federal agency, make reasonable efforts to ensure that the information to be disclosed is accurate, relevant, timely, and complete for the purpose it is being maintained (see also § 310.30(d), subpart D and § 310.40(d), subpart E).

§ 310.12 Government contractors.

(a) Applicability to government contractors. (1) When a DoD Component contracts for the operation or maintenance of a system of records or a portion of a system of records by a contractor, the record system or the portion of the record system affected are considered to be maintained by the DoD Component and are subject to this part. The Component is responsible for applying the requirements of this part to the contractor. The contractor and its employees are to be considered employees of the DoD Component for purposes of the sanction provisions of the Privacy Act during the performance of the contract. Consistent with the Defense Acquisition Regulation (DAR), § 1.327, “Protection of Individual Privacy” contracts requiring the maintenance of a system of records or the portion of a system of records shall identify specifically the record system and the work to be performed and shall include in the solicitation and resulting contract such terms as are prescribed by the DAR.

(2) If the contractor must use or have access to individually identifiable information subject to this part to perform any part of a contract, and the information would have been collected and maintained by the DoD Component but for the award of the contract, these contractor activities are subject to this Regulation.

(3) The restriction in paragraphs (a) (1) and (2) of § 310.12 do not apply to records:

(i) Established and maintained to assist in making internal contractor management decisions, such as records maintained by the contractor for use in managing the contract;

(ii) Maintained as internal contractor employee records even when used in conjunction with providing goods and services to the Department of Defense; or

(iii) Maintained as training records by an educational organization contracted by a DoD Component to provide training when the records of the contract students are similar to and comingled with training records of other students (for example, admission forms, transcripts, academic counseling and similar records);
